

Name: Peter St. Ledger

Reg No: 99

Address: O'Callaghan's Mills, Tulla, County Clare

Date Of Birth: 28 September 1896

Date Of Joining: 28 February 1922

Where Stationed- KILDARE (Monasterevan), LAOIS (Mountmellick), LIMERICK (Kilmallock, DISTRICT(Place): Galbally), OFFALY (Moneygall)

Garda Rank at end of service: -

Occupation Or Trade: -

By Whom Recommended: -

Religion: -

IRA Rank: -

Rank In National Army: -

RIC Rank: 0

Foreign Army Rank: -

If In Cid Or ProtectionCorps: -

Knowledge Of Irish Language: -

Height: -

Chest: -

Remarks: Card Issued

Further Notes: Son of James St. Ledger (a Farmer) and Margaret Greene. During War of Independence Served as Battalion Police Officer in 5th battalion 3rd Company East Clare IRA Brigade. Married Margaret Sheehan on 11th June 1924 at the Church of the University, Dublin. They had three children. Retired in 1931 while stationed in Moneygall, County Offaly. Resided at Red Cow, Clondalkin, Dublin. Died on 30th May 1961 at St. Luke's Hospital in Rathgar, Dublin. He is buried in Doneany Graveryard, Tully, Monasterevan, Co. Kildare.

Acknowledgements And Sources: -

Keyword: Monasterevan Kilmallock Galbally Moneygall

Page Numbers: 7 and 8

Link To Register: -

Additional Images:

@Copyright Policing Genealogy Ireland

policinggenealogyireland@gmail.com