

Name: Patrick Ballantine

Reg No: 302

Address: Keash, Ballymote, Sligo

Date Of Birth: 10 May 1899

Date Of Joining: 16 March 1922

Where Stationed-
DISTRICT(Place): DONEGAL (Donegal), MAYO (Claremorris, Ballina), GALWAY (Ballyforan), ROSCOMMON (Roscommon), SLIGO (Sligo)

Garda Rank at end of service: -

Occupation Or Trade: -

By Whom
Recommended: -

Religion: Roman Catholic.

IRA Rank: Lieutenant

Rank In National Army: -

RIC Rank: 0

Foreign Army Rank: -

If In Cid Or ProtectionCorps: -

Knowledge Of Irish
Language: -

Height: -

Chest: -

Remarks: -

Further Notes: Patrick Francis Ballantine was the son of Patrick Ballantine (a Farmer) and Bridget McDonagh. Was among the first civic guards to open the station in Clonmany, County Donegal. Married Catherine Costello on 30th April 1934 in St. Mary's Church, Haddington Road, Dublin. Was a Weights and Measure Sergeant. Retired on 9th May 1964. Died while serving on 8th March 1974 in Strandhill Road, Sligo Town. He is buried in St Patrick's Cemetery, Strandhill, County Sligo, Ireland. His brother was also a Garda: Joseph Ballantine (Reg No. 5195).

Acknowledgements
And Sources: GSRMA Siochain Magazine, March 1974

Keyword: Roscommon Ballina Ballyforan Sligo

Page Numbers: 25 and 26

Link To Register: -

Additional Images:

@ Copyright Policing Genealogy Ireland

policinggenealogyireland@gmail.com